

A better world is

Clouds Over Sidra

About the Film: Clouds Over Sidra

“Clouds Over Sidra” tells the story of Sidra, a 12-year-old girl from Syria who lives in the Za’atari refugee camp in Jordan. The video explores her life experiences: her attendance at school, the food she eats, how her family lives, her perspectives of men and other children, her perspective of the camp she lives in, and her desire to return home.

Directed by: Gabo Arora, Barry Pousman, Chris Milk

Produced by: Samantha Storr, Patrick Milling Smith, Joe Chen, United Nations, Vrse

What’s The Main Point?

After viewing Sidra’s story, you may come away with some of the following takeaways:

1. Understand the daily lives of Syrian refugees, especially girls, in the Za’atari Refugee Camp
2. Understand how gender and gender roles impact everyday experiences
3. Engage with SDG 5: Gender Equality to promote gender equality and equity in your community

Questions

After viewing Sidra’s story, you may want to consider the following questions to give further thought to key takeaways:

1. What role does gender play in Sidra’s experience in the refugee camp?
2. How is Sidra’s experience with gender similar or different than yours?

Want To Learn More?

Syrian Refugees: Crossing the Border to Jordan

Four Years of Exile: Syrian Refugees in Jordan

Canada’s Response to Syrian Refugees

ACGC
ALBERTA COUNCIL FOR GLOBAL COOPERATION

MCIIC
Manitoba Council for International Cooperation

SCIC
SASKATCHEWAN COUNCIL
FOR INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

In partnership with

Canada